RECEIVER FOR WATERWORKS

E. W. Hart, Manager of the Company, Named as the Receiver.

HALF MILLION OF BONDS DUE

Receivership Blocks Effort of Conneil to Reduce Water Rates, but Has No Effect on Proposal to Buttd Munteipal Plant.

The Council Bluffs City Water Works ompany has gone into the hands of a receiver, E. W. Hart, manager of the company for nearly twenty years, has been appointed receiver and yesterday filed his bond in the sum of $30,000.

The placing of the company in the hands of a receiver was made on the application of the Farmers' Loan and Trust company of New York City, trustee for the holders of the first issue of bonds of the company, amounting to $500,000.

The petition of the Farmers' Loan and Trust company was filed on Monday of this week in the United States circuit court in this city by Hall & Stout of Omahe attorneys for the Farmers' Loan and until yesterday afternoon.

The order appointing Mr. Hart as receiver was made Tuesday at Kansas City with great encouragement. by Judge Smith McPherson and was placed on record in the court here yesterday. The appointment of Mr. Hart as receiver was the water warks company. Under the order of his appointment Receiver Hart is vested been secured during the afternoon. with full authority to conduct the management of the business of the company as he had heretofore.

Reason for Receivership. The petition of the Farmers' Loan and Trust company is a document of between thirty and forty pages of typewritten matter. It asks for the appointment of a receiver on the alleged grounds that the Water Works company is insolvent and that the bonds for which the trust company is trustee are past due and unpaid. These bonds became due about the time of the expiration of the company's franchise, over Blocks New Water Rates.

The appointment of a receiver by the United States court takes the company entirely out of the jurisdiction of the state courts, but the receivership does not in any way affect the action of the city in regard to the proposed issuance of $600,000 water works bonds or the construction of the proposed municipal water plant.

"The filing of the receivership proceedings in the United States court on Monday. said Mr. Wright yesterday, "gave that court jurisdiction of the matter before the meet ing of the city council Monday night, when the new water rates ordinance was introduced. The appointment of a receiver by the United States court takes the company wholly out of the jurisdiction of the state gas in the conduits. courts, and the city council now has no power to fix rates for the company or to do anything to interfere with the management of its affairs by the receiver." "The business of the water works com pany will continue to be administered by Mr. Hart, but now under the direction and at the manholes. The tests, Mr. English ontrol of the federal court," continued Mr. stated, would be continued until the leak, Wright. "If the city should finally decide if any leak exists, is found, when the not to build a municipal plant and should decide to grant a water works franchise, the receivership would make it possible to clear up the affairs of the company and did," said City Engineer Einyre yestereffect a reorganization more speedily than day. if it did not exist."

City Solicitor Clem F. Kimball does not agree with Attorney Wright as to the city council not having the power to fix rates for the company now that the company is ! under the jurisdiction of the federal court. He said; "The regulation of rates is a legislative action on the part of the city council and I question whether the court would have the right to interfere with such action. BOOSTING ALONG THE Y. M. C. A Committee Much Encouraged by the First Day's Work.

"Help us raise the roof." This is the slogan of the committee which started out yesterday to raise the money needed to complete the Young Men's Christian association building according to the original plans.

At noon about forty well known business men gathered at the Grand hotel and while partaking of luncheon formulated plans for the canvass. Short talks between courses were made by J. G. Wadsworth, who is chairman of the special campaign executive committee; Dr. H. B. Jennings, chairman f the business men's committee; Joe W. Smith, chairman of the young men's committee, and F. J. Day, president of the association.

At the close of the luncheon Dr. Jennings appointed twelve committees of two mem bers each and these started out to canvass the city. Mayor Maloney yesterday had notice pany that it would be expected to raise the manhole covers at least once a day for several days to come, in order to clear the conduits of any gas which may yet remain in them and thus prevent another explosion which might not terminate so fortunately as the one Tuesday did.

The Story of Nebraska

The Omaha Bee has planned to publish "The Story of Nebraska," not the story of the prairie schooner, the sod house, the trapper or the fur trader, but of prosperous, progressive, busy, up-to-the-minute Nebraska. Many of the new and some of the older settled counties have been making progress so quietly that the world at large is not aware of their achievements.

Our object is to bring all loyal and progressive citizens into closer touch in the commercial and social relations, and to work for the development of the natural resources of the state, to foster and build up manufacturing industries, and by every consistent effort encourage the employment of skilled labor and improve the conditions of the laboring classes. The story will give only a glimpse, a mere outline. The reader will be shown among the print just enough to give him a general idea of the state. Its opportunities to the dairyman, and its openings to the home maker. The free rural mail box and the telephone pole are crowding the frontier. The wolf and the wilderness have retreated. If during her early history Nebraska has surprised her own people, surely a brighter future awaits them.

There will be a little about the towns and cities, just now somewhat misunderstood and misjudged, and something about the rural districts, the farm and the stock ranch. Here and there will be found a few figures, not many, just a few, as measurements and for the information of those who enjoy such things.

It will tell the achievements of a people, who in less than half a century have wrought ont of a boundless prairie a progressive, productive state. It will give in brief the new life in the new country, the swift passing of events, the possibilities of advancement and pleasure. These articles will be fully illustrated and will appear in the Sunday Bee from week to week.

Next Sunday--Johnson County. The Omaha Sunday Bee
